"we care about honest food."

all our burgers are served with a fresh baked bun from our inhouse bakery, topped with mayo, organic ketchup, pickles, regional lettuce, tomato & onions. Our beef is delivered by regional farmers that we know personally and is ground freshly inhouse.

fine dining, diners and street culture, that’s what “what’s beef?” is about! Host and art collector scalm varol has tasted more than 180 burgers from around the globe. as what’s beef he presents the essence of his experiences. “fresh burgers aren’t a trend for me, they’re a lifestyle. if you eat a burger at what’s beef you are basically booking a short trip to new york”.
